

Meet Shaughn Jenkins.

SA Committee

The Short...

An intrepid wine scholar, Shaughn's love and curiosity for all things wine and vines has led him to visit more than 100 wine regions across a dozen countries.

Shaughn provides an all-encompassing service in wine education, consultation and promotion via his web business, Through the Cellar Door, and has also recently joined the East End Cellars family.

The Long...

Originally from Auckland, New Zealand, Shaughn has built a wealth of experience working in places such as Villa Maria Estate and Gibbston Valley Winery. He is now based in Adelaide, South Australia.

His passion lies in the promotion of a region's unique perspective in wine and culture, and his gift for storytelling results in a holistic and authentic approach to wine education.

Shaughn also holds a multitude of credentials, which include honours as a Spanish and French Wine Scholar, WSET Diploma, and is an Argentina Wine Specialist. He is currently a candidate for the Master of Wine program.
