The Short...

A prolific advocate of the wine industry, Louella is the Group Sommelier for Trippas White Group.

With quite a few achievements under her belt, she is also a Len Evans Scholar for 2023, and makes wine with her best friend Nadja Wallington under their label, The Somm and the Winemaker.

The Long...

For Louella, it started as a part-time job in hospitality to supplement her college education. Inspiration from local winemakers and her insatiable interest in wine led her to Rockpool on George where her career grew and blossomed.

A certified Sommelier, she has won the prestigious Australia's Wine List of the Year Sommeliers' Choice Award for 2020 during her tenure at Bibò Wine Bar.

Keen to spread the word on all things wine, Louella is also a wine judge, a wine writer, an influencer, and is the in-house sommelier for 'Make it Delicious' video series on Foxtel.

She loves the relationships and experiences that wine develops between people, and finds inspiration in that.
